

SOWING SEEDS OF LIFE AND FAMILY

PROGRAM

A holistic approach to healing
young women in need.

Where the needs of the environment, mind, body and spirit
are met with love and care.

Program Director
Sister Esperanza Ortiz

Tecate, Mexico.

What/Where/Who:

Program : certified organic farming, music, reading, math, English & Spanish, art, wellness classes and spiritual guidance.

Facilities: 15 minutes from the Tecate border, located inside 4000 acres of private property owned by Rancho La Puerta Foundation, with its own water well and septic system, and many miles of trails for hiking.

Students: target age 12 to 18. Currently 6 girls enrolled in the program, each costing US$6000 per year for housing and education.

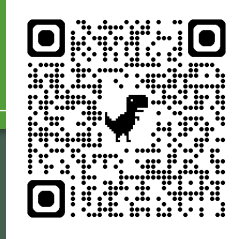

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Planting/Feeding/Watering /Harvesting

Teaching/Fundraising

Weed control/Property maintenance

Cooking/Cleaning/Organizing

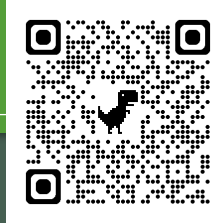

DONATE NOW

One time - monthly - quarterly – annually

1 month of education and housing per girl $500

1 month of education and housing per girl US$500 X 6 girls = $3000

1 year of education and housing per girl US$6000 X 6 girls= $36000

CONTACT US

www.sowingseedsoflife.com

info@sowingseedsoflife.com

Anabelle Petersen (858) 361-7110

Fundraising/Volunteer Coordinator

Sowing Seeds of Life and Family